These side-by-side bulletins reach into the wealthy and bustling Marina District in San Francisco. Lombard St.(US-101) provides access to and from the Golden Gate Bridge(apprx. 1.8 miles to the northwest). The Marina is home to an affluent population of young professionals in their twenties and thirties with apartment buildings, shops and restaurants. Three blocks north, Union St. is known for upscale window shopping, while Chestnut St., two blocks south, offers a variety of high-quality restaurants catering to every palate.
